

Congratulations Cole, Ronye, Edwin, Daniel, Jen, Quinn!

BRC boxers competed at the Legends Club Show in Lexington, on Saturday, August 29th.

Edwin Reyes (106) defeated Odell Williams (Cincinnati) with a variety of punches, including numerous body shots.
 Jennifer Sturgeon (138) put on a technical display, but lost a split-decision to hometown favorite Diona Wigand.
 Quinn Panganiban (156) dropped his rematch against Cincinnati's Corey Preston.
 Cole Wiggers (160) of West Nashville was awarded Best Boxer after a solid win against Lexington's Scott McDermont.
 Daniel Johnson (178) lost his amateur debut to Jesus Hernandez of Baxter's Gym in Louisville.
 Ronye Ford (195) defeated Louisville's Jason Page (nephew of Greg Page), and took home a Best Boxer award.
 Danny Ziemba sang the National Anthem, and served as the referee for the entire 11-bout card.
 Yvonne Simerman worked as the official timekeeper for the show.
 Coaches Justin Gamber, Timmy Miller, and Christy Halbert coached BRC boxers to the Team Trophy!

Boxing Resource Center is a non-profit organization training youth and young adults in the art & science of Olympic-style boxing.