

Congratulations to our boxers Jason Walpole and Pedro Olivas!

On October 28, Jason Walpole (165) and Pedro Olivas (152) competed in the Tullahoma Smoker in Tullahoma, Tennessee. It was a great show, with 18 bouts on the card.

Jason Walpole (165) started training at Boxing Resource Center three months ago, after four years out of the ring. Jason scored a victory over James Patterson of Rivergate, outpointing him over three rounds.

Jason used his strong jab to the head and body to score blows and record the victory.

Pedro Olivas (152) boxed an experienced Nathan Peterson of Tullahoma. The bout went to points after three rounds. This was only Pedro's second amateur bout!

Pedro showed control in the ring with strong jabs and crosses.

Pedro lost a controversial split decision.

