

Coach Christy Halbert

Christy Halbert
2012 Olympic Coach

United States Coach

- 2012 Olympic Coach (coaching and technical advising)
- Team USA International Coach, 1999-present
 - World and Continental Championships, Friendly exchanges, Camps
- Attained highest level of USA Boxing certification in 2001
- USAB Service, past/present: Chair/Member of Women's Commission
 - Member of Rules & Regs Commission
 - Member of Coaches Commission
 - Clinician for USAB Coach Certification
- 2001 Head Coach for first Women's World Championships, Scranton
- 2001-present, Director & Head Coach, Boxing Resource Center, Nashville:
 - Developed 14 National Champions (elite women and men)
 - Created "Hit the Books" after-school boxing program for juniors and youth

AIBA Road to Dream International Camp and Competition Instructor/Coach

- 2014 Head Coach, AIBA Road to Sofia, Youth Men's and Women's World Championship
- 2013 Assistant Coach, AIBA Road to Almaty, Elite Men's World Championship
- 2012 Assistant Coach, AIBA Road to London (Wales), Elite Men's and Women's Camp
- 2011 Head Coach, AIBA Road to Antalya, Junior and Youth Women's World Championship
- 2010 Assistant Coach, AIBA Road to Barbados, Elite Women's World Championship

AIBA Coach Instructor, 2013-present

Conducted courses in Trinidad, Kazakhstan, Scotland, Sri Lanka

AIBA Women's Commission, Secretary

Other notes

- Multimedia lectures, "The Debut of Women's Olympic Boxing" (academic and corporate audiences)
- 2014 Inducted into the International Women's Boxing Hall of Fame, Inaugural class
- 2013 Guiding Woman in Sport Award, National Association for Girls and Women in Sport
- 2011 Olympic Torch Award, awarded by the United States Olympic Committee
- Quoted about women boxers and the Olympic movement in print/radio/television media, including:
The Ring, Sports Illustrated, New York Times, Atlantic Monthly, The New Yorker, USA Today, The Guardian, ESPN, NPR, BBC, NBC Universal
- Commentator, various webcasts
- Written work includes scholarly articles, book and manuals
- Professional Trainer/Cutwoman, 1996-2010
- Professional Boxer, undefeated upon retirement, 1992-1997
- Attended university on athletic scholarship
- Coached numerous sports

PROFESSIONAL WORK (non-boxing)

Sociologist, specializing in Sport, Gender, and Social Psychology, teaching and research
Corporate Training, presentation, Train the Trainer, and workshop design, 1996-present

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Sociology, University of Kentucky, 1999
M.A. in Sociology, University of Kentucky, 1994
B.A. in Sociology and Mass Communications, Western Kentucky University, 1992