

J.O. Champions! Austin, Eugene, Devin, David

Congratulations to Nashville BRC boxers Austin, Eugene, Devin, David and Chuckie on their bouts at the 2011 LBC Junior Olympic Championships in Ripley

Austin Dulay, 15, 132lbs, won his division by defeating N'Dira Spearman of Jackson on day one of the event, and in the finals Austin defeated seasoned amateur, 16-year-old Joey Bryant of Olive Branch, Mississippi. Austin is the Southeastern Association's Senior J.O. Champion at 132, and now advances to the Regional J.O. Championships.

Chuckie Driver, 14, 132, won his first bout of the Intermediate J.O. division by defeating Johnson City's Treton Madison, but dropped his final match to Sean Sullivan of LaVergne.

Eugene Collins, 10, 85, won his Bantam J.O. division unopposed, and took a matched bout on day one of competition in which he defeated Aaron King of Crossville.

David Nelbach, 13, heavyweight, was unopposed in his Intermediate J.O. division, and supported teammates by video taping and cheering.

Devin Nelbach, 10, 80, won his Bantam J.O. division unopposed, and took a matched bout on day two of the event in which he defeated Aaron King of Crossville.

Justin Gamber, Richie Plant, Fred Dulay and Christy Halbert worked in their capacity as coaches and officials, while Doretta Nelbach and Danielle Dulay took photos and videos, and managed the team in Ripley.

Thank you for supporting Nashville boxers.

Our next competition is the LBC Open Championships (for boxers 17-34) to be held in Birmingham, May 13-14.
